

Tell the World
Page 156

Write the answers to each question in complete sentences making sure that you reflect the question in your answer. All answers should be written in your best cursive handwriting. Write your answers on lined paper and attach it to this worksheet.

1. What is the genre of this written piece?
2. How old was the speaker? What country was she from?
3. Where was this speech given?
4. What is a summit conference?
5. Make a list of the important subjects covered by the speech. Read it carefully).
6. What does the speaker urge adults to do? (Page 157)
7. What group of people is the speaker representing (or speaking on behalf of)?
8. List some environmental concerns that the speaker has. (Page 157)
9. What five things does the speaker mention that her audience does not know how to fix? (Page 158)
10. What is meant by "one single world" and "one single goal?"
11. Discuss the life of a street child in Brazil. Compare it with your life.
12. What does the speaker say is taught to children in kindergarten?
13. What does the speaker's dad always say? (Page 161)
14. What does the speaker plead for the audience to do? Give supporting details (page and paragraph number).
15. Identify the introduction, body, and conclusion of the speech.
 - a. Write the first and last sentences of the introduction.
 - b. Write the first and last sentences of the conclusion.
16. Choose two sentences.
 - a. Write each sentence and circle the descriptive words.
 - b. Observe the subject and the verb. Do they fit well together?
 - c. Underline the complete subject in red colored pencil.
 - d. Is the punctuation and capitalization correct?

Tell the World
Vocabulary to understand

Define each term; select the definition related to the word's use in the story. (Hint: check the context.)

1. Speech
2. Summit
3. Hidden agenda
4. Generations
5. Starving
6. Unheard
7. Ozone
8. Cancer
9. Herd
10. Delegates
11. Privileged
12. Favellas of Rio
13. Beggar
14. Greedy
15. Priorities